

DAA QLD Branch proudly presents

*Annual Branch Meeting
& Breakfast With
Dr Rosemary Stanton*

The New Nutrition
Challenges of the 21st Century
- Can We Handle Them?

Dr Rosemary Stanton is Australia's best-known nutritionist .

Rosemary is the author of 24 books, has written over 2900 articles to magazines and newspapers throughout Australia and New Zealand.

She features frequently on radio and television and also lectures to medical students, doctors, teachers, nurses, sporting groups and to the general public.

Rosemary's major aim is to change Australians' poor eating habits so that people have healthier diets, and eat more enjoyable foods which create minimal environmental damage.

To this end she maintains equal interests in the twin areas of food and nutrition.
